1. B: Where were you when the earthquake hit last night?
G: I was home. My house kept shaking, and all of the books fell off the shelves. It was scary. What about you?
B: I just left the bookstore and was walking down the street near First Department Store. I felt the ground shaking, and I saw the lights go out and people running out of the buildings.
G: That was terrible. Luckily, like most earthquakes, it stopped quickly.
Q: What are the boy and the girl talking about?
2. W: Did you read the newspaper yesterday?
M: No. Anything special?
W: A fisherman found a big fish on the beach, and there were some plastic bags in its body.
M: Oh, what a sad story!
W: Everyone should read this news and stop throwing away plastic things.
Q: What are the man and the woman talking about?

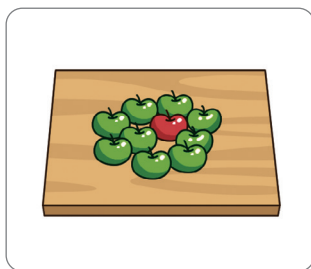

3. B: Mom, I saw a woman and two kids sitting on the street corner on my way home. They looked hungry.
W: Let's give them some food.
B: Mom, you're really the kindest person. You always care for everyone.
W: Well, a giving hand makes the world a better place.
Q: What are the boy and the woman talking about?

4. M: Hi, everyone. Please look at this knife. With it, cooking will become a wonderful experience because you can use it to cut anything easily. I used to have problems cutting chicken, but now it's no problem at all. Just watch me cut the chicken. It works like magic, right? It will be the most valuable tableware in your kitchen although it costs more. Buy one today, and you can get a gift from us.
Q: What is the talk for?
